A PROGRESSIVE VOICE ON FLORIDA'S conservative west coast, the Tampa Bay Times is one of the top 10 newspapers in the United States. Known as the St. Petersburg Times until 2012, this publication is owned by the Poynter Institute for Media Studies, a non-profit school of journalism. This unique ownership structure ensures the newspaper's independent voice and makes it an invaluable resource in the study of journalism and philanthropy.

From “true” to “pants on fire,” reporters and editors of the St. Petersburg Times ranked statements from government officials and interest groups during the 2008 presidential campaign through its fact-checking initiative, PolitiFact.com. For this revolutionary tool – which examined more than 750 political claims during the 2016 election cycle, empowering readers to distinguish between evidence-based reporting and rhetoric – The St. Petersburg Times/Tampa Bay Times won one of the 12 Pulitzer Prizes it’s been awarded since 1964.

The paper has also been honored for its coverage of regional concerns, such as the urban growth of neglect in Florida mental hospitals and corruption in a local sheriff's office. The St. Petersburg Times/Tampa Bay Times is an exceptional primary source for scholarship on local, national and international history dating from 1901–2009, as well for students honing critical-thinking skills to discern fact-based information.
