ProQuest One Business is a new solution designed to support the unique teaching & learning needs of business faculty and students.

1. A user experience designed for business studies
2. Prepares students for success
3. Meets today’s challenges
4. A wealth of in-demand resources

“Beautiful interface!”
– Library Director

“The best attempt at a comprehensive business product I’ve seen.”
– Business Librarian
Developed in collaboration with faculty, students and business librarians, ProQuest One Business delivers a mix of practical and theoretical content in an interface that helps students build the research skills they’ll need for success in their courses and careers.

A business-focused interface intuitively guides users to content like journal articles, books, and company, industry and country reports – the materials they need for their most common assignments. Company Overview pages help students quickly find the best resources for in-depth company research, including SWOT analyses, financial information, and current articles.

From undergraduates to MBAs, students using ProQuest One Business have more power to discover the content and the answers they need for courses and research.
Why ProQuest One Business?

A User Experience Designed for Business Studies
- Intuitively guides users to the content they need for common assignments like SWOT analyses, case studies and industry presentations. “It’s like having GPS” – Business Faculty
- Developed in collaboration with students, faculty, and librarians. “Very clear... easy to use” – Reference Librarian

Prepares Students for Success
- Builds the research skills that students need today – and that companies will look for tomorrow
- Presents a unique mix of practical and theoretical content in a business-specific interface. “Like having a huge mind map” – Dissertations advisor

Meets Today’s Challenges
- An intuitive user experience means distance learners can navigate with ease – and libraries can spend less time on training and support. “Looks very helpful from a glance” – Undergraduate
- Relieves students of the costly burdens of personal news subscriptions and case study purchases.

A Wealth of In-Demand Resources
- Includes more of the valuable information needed by business students and researchers than any other single resource, including journals, newspapers, market research reports, dissertations, books and streaming video.
- Relevant and easy-to-find content generates more usage and enables the library to deliver greater value.
ProQuest One Business content includes:

- Company, industry and country reports from providers such as Fitch Solutions and Economist Intelligence Unit; and in-depth analyst reports from J. P. Morgan
- Scholarly journal and ebook coverage from hundreds of publishers
- Full text of the three major global business news sources: the Wall Street Journal, the Economist and the Financial Times
- A robust collection of video – including interviews with business leaders, case studies and trainings
