

ProQuest University Press Ebook Subscription

A focused, critical mass of premium, University Press-only content at the right price

With coverage across all academic disciplines, ProQuest’s University Press Ebook Subscription is a carefully curated collection of scholarly content that facilitates all stages of the research workflow. The titles included carry the high standards of the affiliated institutions and their researchers along with the rigorous peer review, deep scholarship and influential connections to community and society that define the value of University Press content. ProQuest partners with more University Presses than any other aggregator and we offer the largest selection of titles, many of which are only available through ProQuest.
